LEVEL UP ART FESTIVAL

A vibrant poster for the Level Up Art Festival. The background is a collage of images including a person breakdancing, speakers, and confetti. The title 'Level Up ART FESTIVAL' is prominently displayed in a stylized, colorful font. Below the title, a table lists the festival's schedule. At the bottom, there is a row of logos for various sponsors and partners.

Alliance Française Accra is delighted to invite the general public to the LEVEL UP Art Festival slated for 17th – 24th November, 2018.

As part of the objective to promote cultural diversity, Alliance Française Accra takes interest in different genres of music hence the annual celebration of hiphop. The festival is organized to bring the general public together to appreciate dance, music and other art forms as well as promote hiphop artistes. Over the years, the festival has had a thronging success. Last year, aside the graffiti workshop organized to develop others in the art, E.L and M3nsa headlined the opening and closing concerts respectively and indeed it was exceptional!

This year, now celebrated as LEVEL UP Art Festival, the 8-day festival includes concerts, a dance workshop with renowned Carribean choreographer David Milôme, and a dance slam with local and international artistes coming together to give the audience a wonderful time! All events will take place at Alliance Française Accra.

THE 2018 LINE-UP OF EVENTS

➤ Saturday, 17th November/8pm: *AKAN: Onipa Akoma

Akan will headline the opening concert of the LEVEL UP Art Festival. Last year he successfully released his debut album 'Onipa Akoma' and won the hearts of many music lovers across the country. This concert is a collaboration between A-Level Music and Alliance Française to celebrate the success of his project.

➤ Thursday 22nd & Friday 23rd November/11am-3pm: *LEVEL UP Dance Audition & Workshop

Carribean Choreographer David Milôme will facilitate the workshop and share some tips and ideas with participants. The workshop is open to all who is interested in gaining knowledge in the art of dance. Contact 0501287811 to confirm your participation.

If you think you have the best moves as a group or solo dancer, simply send an email with a short dance video to assist-culturel@afaccra.org or call 0501287811 to audition for the DANCE SLAM competition.

The final epic dance battle will see in competition suave dance moves, break dance and so on to win cash prizes and souvenirs. Prepare to be amazed by the immaculate dancing prowess of the selected participants from the audition. Come and cheer your favourite to victory. In addition, renowned Caribbean choreographer David Milôme will thrill the audience with an impressive dance piece titled “ Une de perdue ... une de perdue?” Don’t miss this epic night of dance battle.

➤ Saturday 23rd November: *Bless The Mic

Ghana’s number one platform for upcoming artistes and creative arts, BLESS THE MIC, celebrates its 10th anniversary with a mega concert themed BTM Music Festival. The festival will start from 10am with an arts exhibition and sales with good music from Cactus Lounge. The kids’ village will feature our mini performance stage with good face painting, bouncy castle and other fun activities. BTMFest will climax with electrifying performances from Adina, Yaa Pono, Klyvn Boi, Mutombo, Crystal Tetteh, Joel Orleans, your favourite BTM artist and other surprise guest. The event is hosted by PY Addo-Boateng and produced by Miprime Entertainment.
